THE RIVAL CABLE ROUTES.—Mr. Crick states that the Victorian Postmaster-General has suggested the holding of a further conference in connection with the rival cable schemes, but he does not think that the Government will be able to do so and has replied accordingly. Mr. Crick states that he has suggested various minor modifications in the proposed agreement with the Eastern Cable Company, but that the latter has refused. He wants to insist if the rates are reduced, the public shall obtain the advantage of the reduction; and also if the building of the Pacific cable is abandoned, the Eastern Cable Company shall be permitted to use the cable for transmitting competing cable, then shall be no loophole for the Extension Company to enter into an agreement with such competing cable that would lose the Eastern Cable Company.

MINISTERIAL TALK.—It is the intention of Mr. Chamberlain to visit the Colonies (Colonial Secretary) to next week in disguise, where he will open the local show. Mr. Chamberlain would also like to see the Governor of the Premier is also contemplating making a tour in the Bourke in about a week's time.

LOW-LEVEL SEWERAGE SYSTEM.—The Minister for Works states that he has made all the necessary arrangements for the construction of the sewer with the low-level sewerage on the western side of the city. The construction of this work will, he thought, entirely do away with the pollution of the river. The sewer will be opened on Monday next, and will be pushed on expeditiously.

THE BANQUET TO MR. COVELAND.—The simple and elegant banquet to Mr. Coveland, who has been appointed Agent-General, will, as already mentioned, be given at the Hotel de Ville on Monday evening next. An arrangement has been made which will substantially insure the success of the affair, as, aside from the presence of the various departments and the Railway Commissioners, several of the most prominent business men of the country, such as Messrs. Foster, Australia, and Mr. O. C. Smith, have volunteered for a full representation of New Zealand in regard to this question.

THE MAIL STRANGLER.—Yesterday the Japanese steamer, the Yokohama Maru, which was despatched by the managing agents, Messrs. Guthrie, Philip, and Co., to Japan by way of the Cape, was wrecked off the coast of New Zealand. The growing popularity of the line was greatly retarded by the fact that the whole of her passengers and cargo were engaged. A wire from the Yokohama Maru to the Yokohama Maru was received yesterday, stating that the Yokohama Maru is due here, and will come on tomorrow morning. The Yokohama Maru has been recently vacated by the Ormuks. The Ormuks will

THE CARPENTERS' COUNCIL.—The executive at last meeting resolved to send a letter of respectful sympathy with the Exodusters, and to present on account of the death of Jim Lewis a memorial. In the matter of the earlier meeting of public-houses and towards bringing on houses more into line with the Early Closing Bill, it was resolved to co-operate with the London Temperance Alliance.

THE CARPENTERS' STRIKE.—A full meeting of the branch of the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters and Joiners was held at the Theatre on 21st night to consider the present strike. The question was discussed till a late hour, when a ballot was taken on the question of assistance or otherwise of the strikers. It was decided by a large majority to abstain to maintain the existing position in view of the present state of the strike.

The delegates representing the federating Australian colonies, Mr. E. Barton, Q.C. (New South Wales), Mr. A. Deakin (Victoria), Mr. J. B. Dickson (Queensland), and Mr. C. C. Kingston, Q.C. (South Australia), and Mr. S. H. Parker, the representative of Western Australia in Federal matters, were, with Barton, Mrs. Deakin, Miss Dickson, and Mrs. Kingston, presented to the Queen on Tuesday, after luncheon at Windsor Castle.

HER MAJESTY WAS MOST GRACIOUS, AND EXPRESSED TO MR. BARTON HER GRATIFICATION AT THE NEAR ACCOMPLISHMENT OF FEDERATION.

HER MAJESTY ALSO EXPRESSED HER WARM APPRECIATION OF THE SPONTANEOUS OFFERS OF THE COLONIES OF TROOPS FOR SERVICE IN SOUTH AFRICA, AND OF THE BRAVERY OF THOSE TROOPS IN THE FIELD.

ANOTHER INTERVIEW TO BE HELD.

PREMIER OF VICTORIA'S STATEMENT.

LONDON, March 29.

Mr. Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, will reply to the memorandum which the delegates have forwarded to him criticising the objections of the law officers to some clauses of the bill, and will then invite to an interview with him the federal delegates, as well as Mr. Parker (Western Australia), and Mr. W. P. Reeves, the Agent-General of New Zealand.

THE REMARK OF MR. McLEOD, THE PREMIER OF VICTORIA, THAT MR. CHAMBERLAIN SHOULD NOTIFY THE COLONIES OF THE ALTERATIONS REQUIRED IN THE BILL, IS INTERPRETED TO MEAN AN ACCEPTANCE OF THE AMENDMENTS, AND IS WEAKENING THE CONTENTION OF THE DELEGATES THAT THE ADOPTION OF THE WHOLE BILL AS AGREED TO BY THE COLONIES AT THE REFERENDUM WOULD BE SATISFACTORY TO THE COLONIES.
